PRESS RELEASE n°1 on November 16, 2013

On November 19-21, 2013 in Naples, Italy, under the auspices of UNESCO, it will take place the 9th World Conference: “BIOETHICS, MEDICAL ETHICS & HEALTH LAW”. 800 speakers, 1200 participants, more than 40 target groups with 200 scientific sessions from 64 Countries:

An exceptional event and a wonderful opportunity in exchanging information and knowledge and debating about very important topics: informed consent, doctor-patient relationship, euthanasia, organ donation, stem cells, abortion and in vitro fecundation, genetic engineering, patient rights, violence and tortures in immigration, disability, bioethics education for schools and health professionals are only some of the ones discussed.

The Conference will be the extraordinary frame for a special meetings and maybe not easy exchange of point of view for different Worlds and Cultures often poles apart to work under all together.

We will find talking face to face Israeli and Arabs about human rights, Pakistanis and Indians about hunger and terrorism, Dutch’s and Italians about euthanasia, Chinese and Americans about democracy, Asians and Africans about development and new social disqualifies.

Doctors, biologists, geneticists, lawyers, psychologists, philosophers, teachers as well as educators, nurses, speech therapists, physiotherapists, and experts in different fields will participate and share their own experience.

The World Conference is organized by the UNESCO Chair in Bioethics in collaboration with the Ethics Committee “Carlo Romano” of Naples University Federico II and with the European Centre for Bioethics and Quality of Life – UNESCO Chair in Bioethics Italian Unit.

9th World Conference UNESCO Chair in Bioethics “BIOETHICS, MEDICAL ETHICS & HEALTH LAW” November 19-21, 2013 will be held at Royal Continental Congress Center - Naples, Italy. Bioethical Education and Life Long Learning sessions will take place at Orientale’s Du Mesnil Palace, Naples

World Conference Press Office

Dr Giacomo Sado
gsado@libero.it - tel. 0039-335-5789671