

Scientific Program

[Subject to changes]

Monday, May 30, 2005

09:00–10:30	Opening Session Safdia Auditorium Chair: Prof. M. Revel Multi-Purpose Building Opening Ceremony Prof. A. Carmi Medical Research by the Nazi Doctors
11:00–13:00	The Nazi Doctor Safdia Auditorium Chair: Prof. A. Piga Multi-Purpose Building Prof. M. Zimmerman Beyond Informed Consent: The Demise of the Medical Profession in the Third Reich – Complicity, Ideology, Morality Prof. M. Franzblau The Psychological, Historical and Social Factors Causing Physicians Basis for the German Physicians' Embrace of German Racial Superiority during the Third Reich Dr. S. Rotter The Story Telling on Dr. Hans Muench: "A Human Being in an SS Uniform": Ernst B. Prof. A. Piga Reflections on the Diary of the SS University Professor Johann Paul Kremer, MD and PhD
13:00–14:00	Lunch Break
14:00–16:00	Experimentation in Nazi Germany Safdia Auditorium Chair: Dr. T. Chelouche Multi-Purpose Building Mrs. Eva Mozes Kor Mengele's Experiments: My Journey to Healing Prof. C. Romney How Auschwitz Prisoner Doctors Perceived the Ethical Problems They Encountered Prof. N. Baumslag How German Public Health Doctors Used Disinfection for Murder Dr. T. Chelouche Human Experimentation and the Jewish Doctors during the Holocaust

14:00–15:30	Research and Psychiatry (II) Safdia Auditorium Chair: Dr. M. Ammon Multi-Purpose Building Dr. S. Lustig Gentle Extermination Dr. R. Strous Hitler's Psychiatrists: Healers and Researchers Turned Executioners Dr. M. Ammon Ethical Needs for Psychotherapeutic Treatment in Psychiatry
15:30–17:30	Euthanasia and the Hippocratic Oath Chair: Prof. N. Baumslag Safdia Auditorium Dr. P. Heberer "Through a Glass Darkly": Reflections on the Victims of the Nazi "Euthanasia" (T4) Program Prof. S. Reiter Aktion T-4: The Role of the Medical Profession in the Extermination of Persons with Disabilities: Is the Hippocratic Oath a Matter of Social Ideology or is it a Moral Imperative? Dr. A. Sawada Morals and Mentalities of Accomplices in the Nazi T4 Program – Focusing on Nurses who Assisted Nazi Doctors Prof. N. Baumslag Murderous Medicine and the Hippocratic Oath: From Euthanasia to Extermination	Ethics, Morals and Survival Chair: Dr. J.D. Steinert Room 5007 Rabin Complex Ms. S. Mayer The Beneficence of Luba Bielicka-Blum Dr. C. Ostrower Humor as a Defense Mechanism in the Holocaust Dr. C. Sanchez-Tellez Spanish Health Professionals in Nazi Camps Dr. J.D. Steinert British Humanitarian Assistance in Belsen Concentration Camp 1945

Wednesday, June 1, 2005

08:30–10:00	Nazi Science and Scientific Findings – Legitimacy and Reliability Safdia Auditorium Multi-Purpose Building Chair: Prof. U. Deichmann Mr. D. Sperling Benefiting from the Dead: An Anatomy of a Continued Disease Prof. U. Charpa Trust and Misconduct: On the Reliability of German Biomedical Research in the Nazi Era (I) General Issues: The Case Moewus Prof. U. Deichmann Trust and Misconduct: On the Reliability of German Biomedical Research in the Nazi Era (II) The Cases Abderhalden, Waldschmidt-Leitz, and Butenandt
10:00–11:30	Informed Consent in Research Chair: Prof. B. Arda Safdia Auditorium Prof. M. Thaler The Social Construction of Informed Consent in America, 1945-1995 Prof. A. Kasher Human Dignity and Medical Ethics: A Gradualist Approach Dr. D. Rusinovic-Sunara Some Experience on Medical Researches in Croatia Prof. B. Arda From the Hippocratic Oath to the Helsinki Declaration: A Short Look at Informed Consent	Medical Treatment: Ethical Dilemmas (I) Chair: Prof. T. Nagai Room 456 Step Building Prof. E.G. Abinader Ethical Issues and Dilemmas in the Era of Modern Cardiology Prof. K. Boshkovski The Ethical and Moral Standards of Medical Students Prof. T. Nagai Organ Transplantation Using Brain Death Body in Japan

11:30–13:00	Research on Special Populations Chair: Prof. J.M. Kissner Safdia Auditorium	Medical Treatment: Ethical Dilemmas (II) Chair: Prof. M. Fariña Room 456 Step Building
	Adv. M. Peled-Raz Research and the Best Interests of the Child: No Policy Around Dr. F. Simonstein The Medicalization of Reproduction and Women as Human Subjects for Research Prof. J.M. Kissner Lack of Racial and Ethnic Diversity in Pediatric Trials: A Lack of Interest or a Lack of Education?	Ms. K.L. Ovadia Ethical Aspects in the Re-use of Single Use Medical Devices Prof. H. Koeswadji Ethics and Law Transfer Technology in Indonesia Prof. M. Fariña DNA and the "Grandmotherhood Index" in Argentina: New Legal and Bioethical Questions
13:00–14:00	Lunch Break
14:00–15:30	Ethics in Research (I) Chair: Prof. B. Dickens Safdia Auditorium	Ethics in Research (II) Chair: Prof. S.S. Rubin Room 456 Step Building
	Prof. E. Lepicard How Can We Secure a Patient-Centered Ethics? The First Reception of the Nuremberg Medical Trial in Perspective Prof. A.R. Leal Health Priorities and Investigation Prof. B. Dickens Was the Nuremberg Code Really Necessary?	Dr. V. Mammadov Research of Alcohol Intoxications in Forensic Medicine Adv. S. Vidal-Naquet Between Conflict and Culture: A Psychological Framework for Human Rights - Theory and Practice Prof. S.S. Rubin Death of a Child and the Organ Donation Process: On Bereavement, Ethics, Morality and Research

15:30–17:30	Medical Treatment: Ethical Dilemmas (III) Chair: Prof. M. Ben-Yakar Safdia Auditorium	Medical Treatment: Ethical Dilemmas (IV) Chair: Dr. L. Iffy Room 456 Step Building
	Prof. L. Zhen The Present Medical Dispute Situation in China Prof. A.M. Ghadirian Spirituality and Ethics in Medicine Dr. S. Vekovshynina Myths and Reality of Soviet Toxicology Prof. M. Ben-Yakar Ethical and Bioethical Questions Regarding Intervention in Disasters: The IBIS (International Bioethical Information System) Experience	Dr. Y. Vishnia-Gipsz Diagnosis and Symptoms – Which Came First? Ms. C.S. Nondo Medical Ethics: The Taproot for Promoting an Effective Health Care Delivery System – The Zimbabwean Experience Dr. L. Iffy The Time of Clamping of the Umbilical Cord: Medical, Ethical and Legal Issues

Thursday, June 2, 2005

08:30–10:00	Recent Issues in Research Sadia Auditorium Chair: Prof. S. Pollack Multi-Purpose Building Prof. H. Messer-Yaron How Does Potential Commercialization Affect Future Science – “Can Patents Deter Innovation”? Prof. A. Tsafirri Biomedical Research: Human Rights and Animal Liberation - The Israeli Perspective Prof. S. Pollack AIDS 2005: What Comes Next?
10:00–12:00	Genetic Research (I) Chair: Prof. J. Lewis Sadia Auditorium Prof. G. Werner-Felmayer Research Ethics in the Brave New World of Biosciences Adv. L. Sheremeta Human Dignity, Informed Consent and Biobanking: A Challenge for Bioethics and Law in the 21st Century Prof. J. Lewis Genetics, Genomics, and Eugenics: Brave New World or Pandora's Box? Prof. E. Kalokairinou What Would it be Like if All Men Were Perfect? Reconsidering Eugenics	Research & Policy Chair: Prof. S. Salako Room 456 Step Building Dr. P. Andanda On the Rear and Still Limping? – The Place of Law in Medical Research in the 21st Century Dr. S. Colombo Ethics and Legal Regulation in a Revolutionary Age Dr. A. Plomer Medical Research and the Legal Scope of Protection of the Convention on Human Rights and Biomedicine Prof. S. Salako The Declaration of Helsinki 2000: Ethical Principles and “The Dignity of Difference”
12:00–13:00	Lunch Break

13:00–14:30	Genetic Research (II) Chair: Prof. A. Shapira Prof. H. Lillie Ad-hoc Committee Against Reproductive Cloning Prof. A. Shapira Embryonic Stem Cell Research for Therapeutic and Reproductive Purposes: Should We Do It? Prof. P. Kakuk The Doctrine of Genetic Exceptionalism: Social Consequences and Future Research on Humans	Safdia Auditorium Multi-Purpose Building
14:30–16:00	Genetic Research (III): Closing Session Chair: Prof. M. Revel Dr. Y. Blachar Genetic Research in Large Populations Prof. M. Revel Human Embryo Stem Cell Research: Ethical Perspectives from UNESCO International Bioethics Committee and Implementation at National Level Prof. A. Carmi Closing Words	Safdia Auditorium Multi-Purpose Building